The aim of the exercise is to watch a target whilst moving it towards your nose and maintaining a continuous single image with ease – the image may be blurred but it must be single.

The Orthoptist will provide you with an appropriate target to use for this exercise or you can use a pen or pencil. This exercise is sometimes known as 'Pencil Push-ups'.

1. Hold target at arm's length from face at eye level.
2. Bring the target slowly towards your eyes watching the target carefully and continuously.
3. When / if the target appears 'double', stop moving target towards you. Focus hard on the target and try to regain a single image.
4. If this is achieved repeat from step 2.
5. If a single image cannot be achieved move the target backwards slowly until a single image is achieved once more. Repeat from step 2.
6. Effective convergence has been achieved once the nose can be touched with the target and a single image can be comfortably maintained.

The Orthoptist will advise you on how often you should perform Pencil Push-ups.

At the end of your exercise session it is important to relax your eyes by looking out of a window at a far away object OR by closing your eyes for a few minutes.
