

PRIORITY wellbeing support for NHS and social care staff in Devon

We are offering priority access to our wellbeing service to NHS staff and social care staff in Devon who may be struggling during the impact of coronavirus (COVID-19).

Are you feeling stressed and overwhelmed? The current coronavirus pandemic is putting immense pressure on all our frontline NHS and social care staff. The effort is heroic but no one is invincible.

We are here to help with support that is accessible, flexible and we hope, immediately helpful at this time of crisis, enabling you to build resilience in these difficult times.
